

On the 1st of May, 1865, the 1st Regt. of the 1st Div. of the 1st Army Corps, under command of Gen. T. J. Jackson, crossed the Rappahannock River, and took position on the heights of Spotsylvania Court House, and engaged the 1st Div. of the 2nd Army Corps, under command of Gen. G. K. Warren, in a sharp conflict.